

FEEDBACK FORM REGARDING STATE-DEFINED PROHIBITED CONCEPTS

State law defines “Prohibited Concepts” as follows:

- a) One race or sex is inherently superior to another race or sex;
- b) An individual, by virtue of the individual’s race or sex, is inherently privileged, racist, sexist, or oppressive, whether consciously or subconsciously;
- c) An individual should be discriminated against or receive adverse treatment because of the individual’s race or sex;
- d) An individual’s moral character is determined by the individual’s race or sex;
- e) An individual, by virtue of the individual’s race or sex, bears responsibility for actions committed in the past by other members of the same race or sex;
- f) An individual should feel discomfort, guilt, anguish, or another form of psychological distress solely because of the individual’s race or sex;
- g) A meritocracy is inherently racist or sexist, or designed by a particular race or sex to oppress members of another race or sex;
- h) This state or the United States is fundamentally or irredeemably racist or sexist;
- i) Promoting or advocating the violent overthrow of the United States government;
- j) Promoting division between, or resentment of, a race, sex, religion, creed, nonviolent political affiliation, social class, or class of people;
- k) Ascribing character traits, values, moral or ethical codes, privileges, or beliefs to a race or sex, or to an individual because of the individual’s race or sex;
- l) The rule of law does not exist, but instead is a series of power relationships and struggles among racial or other groups;
- m) All Americans are not created equal and are not endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, including, life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; or
- n) Governments should deny to any person within the government’s jurisdiction the equal protection of the law.
